

2009-10 Tuition

Limited Scholarship and Work Study Programs Available!

Tuition is an average annual fee, based on the number of weeks in the 2009/10 season and may be made in 3 equal quarterly or a single annual payment. (The fee is based on the total number of hours of study per week, becoming a better hourly value with more classes attended.)

Tuition is due on the 1st day of the quarter, and may be 1) mailed or 2) placed in the tuition box above the counter, just inside the Academy front entry door.

We also now accept payment by major credit cards.

Registration Fee: $20 annually for students joining the Academy since 2001. Siblings qualify for our family plan: $20 for the first child and $10 each for additional family members.

Missed Classes:

We have a very liberal make-up policy: any missed class can be made up in a similar or lower level, and make-ups for the season do not expire until the end of May classes. Refunds are not issued for missed classes. Please contact the Academy as soon as possible if class attendance is no longer possible for you or your dancer ~ 2 consecutive missed classes may result in the placement of waiting list dancers, and/or continued tuition charges until your notification has reached our office.

Dress Code & Additional Performance Expenses:

Please follow the dress code guidelines. Motions Dancewear is familiar with our needs and has ordered stock specifically to meet them. Better quality tights last longer than cheap imitations at BuyNLarge, and the Payless Tap shoe is simply dangerous. Students who come to class without abiding by the hair and dress code may be asked to observe, rather than participate.

Families can expect performance related expenses in costumes and accessories for the Deja Vu performance. In general, costs will range from $35-$50 per class maximum (solos excluded). Ticketing is handled by the Civic Center, and we offer the convenience of photography, videography and advance floral orders for our busy parents.
